Parade Rules

- All entrants must have some sort of signage incorporating and decoration including the "My Hometown" theme.
- No throwing candy, coins, or other items to spectators to comply with Liability Disclaimer.
- Give away items may be handed to spectators by those walking with floats or as walking entries (no edible items). This must be done quickly and safely, as not to delay the progression of the parade itself.
- Each entry must display the WCA entry number on the Right side of their vehicle.
- All candidates for office must be in a motorized vehicle, horse-drawn carriage, or on a float.
- No visiting with the spectators on the parade route, to avoid delay of the parade. Candidates are encouraged to secure a booth at the festival if they wish to visit with attendees.

Please complete the entry form and liability disclaimer and mail it to:
